

FOR THE DESTITUTE.

Georgia Renders Aid to the Nebraska Sufferers.

GOVERNOR NORTHEN'S SCHEME.

On January 15 a Long Freight Train Will Pull Out of Atlanta Laden With the Silver and Golden Grain For the Sufferers Residing in Her Sister State in the Far West.

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 1.—Ex-Governor W. J. Northen is heading a movement to send corn from Georgia to the starving people of western Nebraska, and is meeting with assurances of success. On Jan. 15 a long freight train will pull out of Atlanta laden with the silver and golden grain, a New Year's present from the overflowing bins of Georgia to the empty cribs of suffering Nebraska.

Governor Northen has kept the wires warm with telegrams to the mayors of all the cities and towns in Georgia, asking them to give out of the superabundance to the stricken families of Nebraska. He has also sent dispatches to the railroad officials of the leading roads of Georgia, asking them to enter the good work by granting free transportation to such corn as is shipped over their roads for the sufferers.

In response to these requests he has received assurances from President Hoffman of the Seaboard Air Line, from the Atlanta and West Point railroad and from the Western and Atlantic offering their freight facilities free and such other assistance as may be in their power.

Mayor Brown of Carrollton answers the appeal as follows: "Your telegram received this morning and the appeal went straight to my heart. While money is scarce, what you ask for God has bountifully blessed our country with. I had the telegram announced at each church, and the pastor of the Baptist church appointed a committee to solicit help for the sufferers. I will appoint committees in each district throughout the county for the same purpose."

HAS THERE BEEN FOUL PLAY?

An Arrest Made That May Unearth a Foul Crime.

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—Whether or no Harry W. Tilden of Greensboro, N. C., has met with foul play, is suggested by the arrest here of Max Mechela, who is suspected of being a steamboat crook. Mechela was arrested last Wednesday, and in the Essex Market police court Monday afternoon he was remanded till Wednesday in order to afford the police an opportunity to obtain evidence against him.

When Mechela was arrested, seven trunks and valises containing property of the aggregate value of $500, were found in his apartments, in addition to some mining stock of the face value of $45,000. It is supposed that these bonds are owned by Harry W. Tilden.

In court, the policeman who arrested Mechela said he had received a letter from C. W. V. Tilden of 311 Asbore street, Greensboro, N. C., saying that his brother Harry W. had $60,000 for Europe eight months ago, and had not since been heard from. The writer goes on to say if the bonds found in Mechela's possession belong to Harry W. Tilden, the latter had probably met with foul play.

Phon Tilden, a reporter on the Baltimore News, also writes that he is a brother of Harry W. Tilden.

THE ROBY QUESTION.

What Governor Matthews Will Say to the Legislature.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 1.—Governor Matthews has made public that part of his message touching upon the Roby question. He said that he had made some very strong recommendations, which, if acted upon, would result in the suppression of Robyism in the state. In fact he said he had handled Roby without gloves.

A few weeks ago he had some correspondence with Judge Gillette of Lake county and informed the judge that he would be thankful for any suggestion which he or any other competent citizen might make. He did not know that Judge Gillette was preparing his suggestions in the form of a bill to be introduced in the legislature, but he hoped such was the case.

FIRE HORROR.

A Mother and Five Children Burned to Death in Their Own Home.

ELLSWORTH, Wis., Jan. 1.—Monday morning at an early hour, Mrs. Michael O'Connell and five children were burned to death in their home in the town of El Paso. Mr. O'Connell was the only member of the family who slept down stairs and he barely escaped from the building in his night clothes. As he rushed out, his wife appeared at an upper window and dropped the youngest child in his arms, and returning into the room for the others, she was undoubtedly suffocated for she never returned.

Another child jumped from a window and was saved. Mr. O'Connell was perhaps fatally burned in his attempt to save his family.

State Assembly K. of L.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 1.—The eighth annual session of the Ohio state assembly of the Knights of Labor convened Monday, with delegates present from nearly every local assembly in the state. There is considerable important business to be transacted at the present meeting, but it is mainly of a routine character.

DESERTED HIS KIN YEARS AGO.

Now They Hear That a Vast Fortune Awaits Them.

CONCORD, N. H., Jan. 1.—George A. Simonds of this city has received information of an ancestor's estates, valued at from $3,000,000 to $4,000,000, which have for years awaited an owner.

The property in question belonged to a great uncle, Robert Sargent of Hubbardston, Mass., more than 40 years ago. Sargent was opposed by all the other members of his family in a quarrel, and converted all his property into cash or securities and disappeared. Twenty years later a stranger of apparent means spent a few days in Hubbardston, and to some he divulged the fact that he was Robert Sargent. He left again, and never returned. Once or twice tidings from the far west told of his unusual prosperity, but a never by letter did the family hear from him.

A few weeks ago Mr. Simonds and others of the relatives were notified by a Boston attorney of an estate of from $3,000,000 to $4,000,000, which belonged to them, and of which the lawyers had exclusive knowledge. He gave out enough information to prove the existence of the property, but refused to locate it until he was assured of 50 per cent of the value of the property recovered. The estate is supposed to exist on the borders of Texas and in Mexico. There are 37 heirs. The property has been in charge of an agent several years, is in good condition and free from debts. The heirs have held recent meetings, and chosen one of their number, who is a lawyer, to represent them.

CINCH ON BEING FIRST.

Even if He Did Have to Start the Fire Himself.

NORTH TONOWANDA, N. Y., Jan. 1.—During the past six months this village has been the scene of so large a number of fires of an obviously incendiary origin as to call for the serious attention of the police authorities. A secret investigation was instituted, which resulted in the arrest of John Goerke, 31 years old, a member of the Columbia hook and ladder company of Tonawanda, and belonging to the State Firemen's association. It is claimed that Goerke has been the author of many destructive fires here, among them that which destroyed the Weston lumber yards, last week, causing a loss of over $175,000. It is the custom of the local fire department to award a medal to the fireman who arrives first at the scene of the greatest number of fires during the year, and it is said that Goerke has been first at almost every fire since May 6 last.

He Flew High.

POSTORIA, O., Jan. 1.—Ed Gebert, for three months past bookkeeper of the Peabody Buggy company, is missing. On Friday night he left the city, but his absence was not discovered until Saturday noon. He came here three months ago in hard luck. During the time he was here he bought a $100 gold watch, a $75 diamond and several suits of clothes. His salary was not large, and it was only after he left that any crookedness was suspected. The amount he is short at the buggy company is not known. Mr. Peabody has gone to Chicago, Gebert's former home, to look him up. Gebert was a bright young fellow and unusually well educated.

Bird Expert's Opportunity.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1.—An examination will be held at the rooms of the civil service commission on Jan. 15 for an assistant ornithologist and an ornithologist clerk in the department of agriculture. The salary of the former position is $1,000, and of the latter $690 per annum. Applicants residing away from Washington may be examined at some of the large cities, where the commission has competent boards, providing applications are filed at once.

Testing a Law.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 1.—Attorney William A. Ketcham of Indiana has begun suit in the Marion county circuit court, praying that the fee and salary act of 1891 be purged of its unconstitutional features and restored to the manner and form in which it passed the general assembly. The suit is brought on relation of Governor Matthews, and the defendants named are Secretary of State W. R. Myers and a number of county officers.

Pronounced a Forgery.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Jan. 1.—State Treasurer Stevens received a letter from a brokerage firm in St. Louis containing what purported to be a coupon for $50, due July 1, 1886, on the Hannibal and St. Joe Railroad state renewal bond, and bearing 6 per cent interest. Mr. Stevens pronounced it a forgery, for the reason that no bond bearing the number 374,926 is in existence.

Fatally Injured by a Bomb.

BLUFFTON, O., Jan. 1.—While George Lamb of Belmont was celebrating at a belling Saturday night, he lit a fuse attached to a piece of gas pipe filled with powder, which exploded with a terrific force. One piece of the pipe struck him in the face and skull, mashing it in a terrible manner. Another piece was imbedded in his breast. His injuries are fatal.

Death Rate in New York.

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—John I. Nagle, M.D., chief of the bureau of records, made his annual report Monday. The report shows that the health of the residents of this city has been better during 1894 than in any year since 1814, when the death rate was 17.56 to the 1,000. The deaths in this city in the past year were 41,212, against 44,486 in 1893. The deaths in tenements amounted to 26,149, against 28,378 last year, a decrease of 2,224.

GERMANY OBJECTS.

Why Some of Our Imports Are Not Admitted.

THEY OBJECT TO COMPETITION

Live Cattle, Dressed Beef, Canned and Other Meat Products Are Strongly Objected To—Not Much Reliance Placed Upon Their Claims of Disease Meats—No Telling the Result.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1.—It is asserted at the agricultural department that the agricultural or Agrarian party in the German empire brought about the prohibition of the importation to Germany of live cattle, dressed beef, canned beef and other meat products from the United States. Secretary Morton says that the landed proprietors in Germany are the protectionists who teach McKinleyism in "high Dutch." They desire, he says, to exclude all competition which may arise from the fertile lands of the United States.

In proof of his position, the secretary gives out the following extract from the morning edition of Dec. 7, 1894, No. 572, of The Kreuzer New Prussische Zeitung, published at Berlin, which is the acknowledged leading organ of the Agrarian interests:

"The business firms of Hamburg, interested in the importation of American cattle, are doing everything in their power to remove the prohibition which was enforced on account of the danger of diseases. 'Experts' went to England for the purpose of obtaining information as to the experience derived there from the importation of cattle, and—to the surprise of no one—returned home with the 'most favorable' news. Englishmen who look for 'diseases' everywhere, and for this reason have made the German business life a burden for years, state that they are of the opinion that 'Texas fever' has no dangerous character and is not contagious at all.

"It is to be hoped that the Hamburg gentlemen will be mistaken if they are of the opinion that this optimism, which from their standpoint, is easily explained, will be shared by the responsible authorities. The Hausse business interest was warned when it formed the idea several months ago of replacing the exportation in human beings (emigrants) with the importation of cattle.

"The conservative and 'Agrarian' press had already, at that time, called attention to the considerations against it on account of the danger of infections; but, as is always the case, no impression was made. The 'new course' (Caprivi's) had pampered 'business'—in so far as it was not of an agricultural character—to such an extent that the business people had the idea that they might do anything. Therefore, the cattle steamers were built and the ball began to roll.

"That this prohibition, coming sooner than anybody could have anticipated, is disagreeably felt, we readily believe, but we are all the same convinced that the Hamburg business interests will bear this loss easier than the German agricultural interests could bear the importation of dangerous and contagious diseases, but we, therefore, sincerely hope, as already stated, that the English 'travelers' experiences' of the Hamburg 'experts' will be shelved with the records as 'valuable material' in Berlin and elsewhere."

Means Canada Also.

OTTAWA, Jan. 1.—The department of agriculture has ascertained that the term "America" in Germany's decree prohibiting the entry of live cattle from America also includes Canada. The government has therefore asked the imperial authorities to make overtures to the German government to have Canada dissociated in interpretation with the term America, since the minister of agriculture reports Texas fever unknown in Canada.

INSPIRED BY JEALOUSY.

Two Poles Confess to Having Murdered Their Companion.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 1.—Frank Kostya and James Molner, who were, with Lewis Dahonish, indicted and lodged in the county jail for the murder of John Gairing several months ago, have made a complete confession of the crime. The three men, all Poles, boarded with a widow in the South End, who had an attractive young daughter. Molner was smitten with the girl and became very jealous of Gairing. Molner and Dahonish made up a plot to kill Gairing and decoyed him to the woods near the city limits.

Kostya first shot Gairing in the arm, and then clubbed him into insensibility. Molner then fired eleven shots into the prostrate body, after which it was dragged to a secluded place and covered with brush. The authorities shortly afterward discovered the body and the men named above were arrested on suspicion.

Molner and Kostya tell the same story, but Dahonish will say nothing as yet.

Western Man Insane in New York City.

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—A heavily built man of 60 years, stoop-shouldered, grizzled and tanned, who styled himself as George Dougherty of Dakota, has been taken to the hospital to be examined as to his sanity.

Dreyfus' Sentence.

PARIS, Jan. 1.—The council of revision has confirmed the sentence of confinement in a fortress for life which was imposed upon Captain Albert Dreyfus by the courtmartial on Dec. 22.

BISHOP OF INDIANA.

Death of Right Rev. David Buell Knickerbacker.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 1.—The Right Rev. David Buell Knickerbacker, D. D., bishop of the diocese of Indiana, died at 6 o'clock Monday evening of pneumonia. He was born at Schaghticoke, Benning county, N. Y., on Feb. 24, 1833. He was the youngest son of Harmon Knickerbacker, widely known as "Prince Knickerbacker."

He is alluded to by Washington Irving as "My Cousin, the Congressman," and when Mr. Irving visited Washington he introduced him to President Madison as "My Cousin, Diedrich Knickerbacker, the great historian of New York."

Bishop Knickerbacker re-entered Trinity college, Hartford, and graduated from there in 1853; re-entered the general Theological seminary in New York city, and remained there three years. He was ordained deacon by Bishop Potter in Trinity church, New York, June, 1856, and immediately went to Minneapolis as a missionary, officiating there for the first time Dec. 7, 1856. He was advanced to the priesthood by Bishop Kemper in Gethsemane church, Minneapolis, July 13, 1857. Minneapolis at this time was a hamlet with a population of about 200.

In 1877 Dr. Knickerbacker was elected missionary bishop of Arizona and New Mexico, which election he declined. He was elected third bishop of Indiana in June, 1883, and on Oct. 14 following in St. Marks church, Philadelphia, he was consecrated. His consecrators were: A. Cleveland Cox, bishop of western New York; Theodore B. Lyman, bishop of North Carolina; Charles Franklin Robinson, bishop of Missouri; John Medley, bishop of Frederickton, Canada; H. B. Whipple, bishop of Minnesota; William W. Niles, bishop of New Hampshire, and George Gillespie, bishop of western Michigan.

STEAM'S SUCCESSOR.

Maryland Central to Adopt It—Power From the Susquehanna.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 1.—The first railroad in the country to substitute electricity for steam will be the Baltimore and Lehigh, or the old Maryland Central, which is now being extended to York, Pa. President Houseman of the newly chartered Susquehanna Electric company, which proposes to harness the power of the Susquehanna river at Conowongo Falls, is prominently connected with the Baltimore and Lehigh Railroad company, as are also Winfield J. Taylor and J. Summerfield Bull, directors of the Susquehanna company.

There has been considerable litigation over the Baltimore and Lehigh railroad, and the managers of both the Pennsylvania and Maryland sections of the road are considering the question of utilizing the Susquehanna electrical power for operating the road by electricity between York, Pa., and Baltimore, as soon as the line is changed to standard gauge.

Already preparations are being made to do this on the Pennsylvania section by W. F. Wolworth of Cleveland. Ties and other material are now being purchased, and it is expected the bond issue of $150,000, by the company, recently authorized, was to pay part of the expenses of this improvement. This railroad alone would require a current representing several thousand horse power. Its route is only seven miles from the proposed site of the dam.

WYOMING POLITICS.

Two United States Senators to Be Elected in the Near Future.

CHEYENNE, Wyo., Jan. 1.—Two United States senators are to be chosen at the coming session of the legislature—one for six years to succeed Joseph M. Carey, and one for four years to fill the vacancy occasioned by the failure of the legislature two years ago to elect a successor to Francis E. Warren.

Senator Carey is a candidate for reelection. Ex-Senator Warren is also a candidate for the long term senatorship. Both are residents of Cheyenne. Early in the contest the remainder of the state demanded that Cheyenne should decide between Carey and Warren, and that the other senator should not be a resident of that city.

The several candidates concede Warren's election to the long term and a majority are willing that he should be elected first, in order to remove one of the disturbing elements from the contest.

Senator Carey has come home from Washington and is making an aggressive personal canvass.

For the short term senatorship, ex-Congressman Clarence D. Clark will have the unanimous support of the Uintah and Sweetwater county delegations.

Hon. J. J. Davis of Carbon county, Judge M. C. Brown of Albany and Judge Jay L. Torrey of Fremont will have the backing of their respective counties.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1.—Secretary Herbert has remitted the unexpired portion of the sentence of Lieutenant E. D. Bostick, suspended for one year by courtmartial for drunkenness, while attached to the Rangers at San Diego. About four and a half months of the time remained to be served, and as the officer had lost 12 numbers, the secretary felt that his punishment had been sufficient.

Snow in North Carolina.

RALEIGH, Jan. 1.—The first real snow storm of the season struck here and reached a depth of four inches. The storm extended over the entire state and the snow in the mountains is very deep.

SEVEN TEEN PERISHED

The Delavan House Horror a Very Serious One.

ITS FULL EXTENT UNKNOWN

There May Be Other Bodies That Will Be Taken From the Ruins—Miraculous Escape of Some of the Inmates of the Hotel—Names of the Unfortunate Victims So Far as Learned.

ALBANY, N. Y., Jan. 1.—The list of those who are missing and supposed to have perished in the Delavan House fire numbers 17. All the injured are reported out of danger and improving. All the hotel servants had quarters on the fifth floor of the hotel. It is asserted by the hotel people that the help were apprised of the fire in time to save themselves, but that they ran around to arouse the guests and in doing this were overcome by smoke.

The full list of missing is as follows: Mrs. Francis Hill from Chicago. Nora Sullivan, chambermaid. Mary Sullivan, chambermaid, sister of Nora. Mary Carr, chambermaid, from Saratoga. Annie Bailey, employed in cleaning department. Bridget Fitzgibbons, employed in pantry.

Amelia Tomaznia, chambermaid. Simon Myers, coffee man. Rosanta Storney, chambermaid. Ellen Dillon, landress. Agnes Wilson, chambermaid from Buffalo.

Rae Young, employed in linen department, from Buffalo. Kate Crowley, chambermaid. Tom Cannon, hall man. Fernando Belletti, fireman. Ricardo Tesfoni, works in kitchen.

An unknown Italian, worked in kitchen.

About 20 girls were sleeping in the attic, which was on the Steuben street side of the house, and the only exit was a narrow stairway leading to the third floor hallway, from which there were three stairways by which to escape. The most reliable information that could be obtained was given by an employee of the house named Kate Monahan, who knew all the girls well, and had up to that time been unable to find 12 of them, who she is positive are dead.

Besides these she asserts that four men are also in the ruins. Miss Monahan says she escaped through the basement and that at that time the girls, she believes, were lost in the attic. When she reached the last stairway, the six lower steps were burned and she had to jump the remaining distance. If the girls were in the attic then it seems impossible for them to have escaped.

FISHERMEN IN DISTRESS.

Three Lives Have Probably Been Lost in Lake Michigan.

MENOMINEE, Mich., Jan. 1.—Martin, Frank and John Wosnaki, brothers, were carried away in an open fishing boat by the ice last Saturday. They were seen Monday drifting toward death's door, and will probably not be rescued alive, as the weather has since continued very cold. No attempts have been made here to rescue them, as the tugs are all frozen in and their machinery taken apart for the winter.

A telegram was sent to Escanaba in the hope that a tug is still in commission there, but no answer has been received. Owing to the strong wind and large body of ice between the three fishermen and the shore it is considered folly to attempt to reach them. The men are without food. All are married. When seen through a glass Monday they were still alive and occasionally raised a piece of canvass attached to an oar as a signal of distress.

MAN-HUNT ORGANIZED.

Three Desperate Negroes Murder an Old Man in Cold Blood.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Jan. 1.—The most dastardly crime ever committed in this county was perpetrated Saturday evening by the murdering of E. G. Daniels, aged 62, at East Lake, by unknown parties.

Three negro tramps called upon the family for provisions in the early part of the day and hung around until nightfall, when they accosted the old man. After covering him and his family, three helpless women, with pistols, they demanded money. Being refused, they shot Daniels three times in the head and then robbed him and fled. A posse was formed of the citizens and is now in pursuit. As yet no trace of the villains has been discovered.

Coal Operators Confident.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 1.—Secretary Phillips of the Massillon District Coal Operators' association said concerning the situation: "We shall not attempt to start the mines at present. We have every reason to believe that the men will reconsider their action taken last Friday and go to work at the price stipulated in the award of the arbitrators. The men have had the public sympathy with them all through their contest until now, and we feel that they will see this very soon."

Death of a Prominent Army Officer.

NEW HAVEN, Jan. 1.—The death is announced at Melrose, Mass., of General John B. Dennis, formerly captain, major and lieutenant colonel of the Seventh Connecticut regiment in the civil war. He was afterward paymaster general of South Carolina and a member of the legislature of that state during the Moses administration. He was breveted brigadier general at the close of the civil war.

EVENING BULLETIN.

DAILY, EXCEPT SUNDAY.
ROSSER & MCCARTHY,
 Proprietors.

THE BULLETIN is the best and newest paper in Southern Kentucky. Established in 1862. It speaks for itself. Its long and prosperous career is convincing evidence of the great value people place upon it as a newspaper and advertiser's medium. Weekly, $1.50 a year; Daily, $3 a year. Proportionate rates for less than a year. Now is the time to subscribe. Advertising rates furnished on application.

TUESDAY, JANUARY 1, 1895.

Fair, warmer weather, south-westerly winds.

HAPPY NEW YEAR TO ALL

To our many friends and patrons, greeting. The BULLETIN wishes one and all, this bright and wintry morning, a happy New Year, and may it be a more prosperous one than 1894 for all who have been complaining of "dull times."

While the year that just closed was a hard one with many, yet we have no cause for complaint. The BULLETIN has continued to prosper, and it enters upon the new year "owing no one anything."

We are grateful, very grateful for the liberal patronage heretofore extended us. It shall be our aim always to merit a continuance of the support so generously accorded the BULLETIN in the past by the good people of Maysville and surrounding country.

If all reports from the East are true, there is no question that the bankers of New York are slyly scheming to drive Secretary Carlisle out of the Cabinet. And yet we are told the Carlisle currency bill is in the interest of the bankers.

HENRY FECKER, of Piqua, O., had no confidence in banks and bankers and did his own banking, using his bedroom as a place of deposit. He is now searching for $4,750 that thieves carried away last week, and is convinced, no doubt, that his bedroom is not as safe a place for cash as a bank vault.

AFTER-ELECTION FACTS.

The bugbear of Canadian competition in coal, in case of free coal, destroying American mining industries, the Pittsburg Times exposes in some figures it gives of the coal trade of the Dominion. It shows that the United States exported to Canada in 1893 a total of 3,175,000 tons of coal, about equally divided between anthracite and bituminous. This is more than the amount of Canadian coal consumed in the whole of Canada, taking in both the British Columbia and Nova Scotia product. Of Nova Scotia coal Canada exported only 180,000 tons, and from British Columbia and the other provinces 650,000 tons, or a total of 830,000. And yet we are asked to guard ourselves by a wall of protection against Canadian competition. It was this monstrous humbug more than anything else, aside from money, that defeated Wm. L. Wilson for Congress. We meet Canada on her own ground, with a duty against our coal of 60 cents a ton, and take her coal trade away from her own operators at their own doors. In the West Indies, Mexico and South America we sell nearly a million tons of coal a year, meeting successfully the competition of the world. We send American coal even to Europe. And yet our miners were instructed that the new tariff law, even with its needless 40 cents a ton duty, would cut their wages and annihilate the American coal trade.

This is like the attempt to frighten the farmers before the election about Canadian hay and potatoes. The after-election facts showed that both these articles were higher in Canadian markets than in the markets of the United States.

SENATOR BLACKBURN.

His Opponents Will Have to Combine to Beat Him, And That's Not Likely.

VERMILION, Ky., December 29.—The Kentucky Senatorial race is exciting much interest and unlimited speculative gossip here at Senator Joe Blackburn's home. "Captain Joe," as he is known to everybody here, is the idol of most of the population of Woodford County, and they are for him for any office up to President of the United States, and against any other man in the country. There is little doubt among the politicians here but that he will succeed himself in 1896. It is true that in McCreary, Brown and Buckner he has stronger opposition than he has heretofore encountered, but here is the way a prominent politician argued the case this evening: "If his opponents could form a combination against him Blackburn would be doomed. But here's where Blackburn has the bulge—they can't combine. Blackburn is fortunate in possessing the good-will and friendship of all those of his opponents."

"Ex-Governor Buckner wants Blackburn's Senatorial seat, and he wants it badly, but if he can't have it himself he will turn around and help Blackburn before he will combine with either of the others. With Governor Brown it is the same way. He will yield to Blackburn before he will to McCreary, and of course he wouldn't help Buckner, as you well know. McCreary is Senator Blackburn's neighbor, and Blackburn went over into his district last fall and helped him in his Congressional race. So you see "Smooth Jeems" isn't going to assist in ousting his friend Joe unless he can be the wearer of his cast off shoes. This seems to be a pretty accurate estimate of the situation as viewed from this point. Blackburn cannot beat a combination of all of his opponents, but handling them separately he will certainly win."

The annual report of Messrs. Tabb and Blades, Tobacco Inspectors at Cincinnati, is at hand, and it furnishes some interesting statistics as to the business on the Queen City "breaks" for the year 1894.

There is less stock on hand in the Cincinnati market to-day than there was on January 1st, 1894. Here are the figures, showing receipts, deliveries &c.: Stock on hand January 1, 1894.....21,838 bbls. Receipts for the year.....75,625 bbls.

Total.....97,463 bbls. Deliveries for the year.....78,717 bbls.

Stock on hand Jan. 1, 1895.....19,746 bbls.

The offerings during the year were 104,010 hogsheads, the rejections 28,723, the sales 75,287, the deliveries 78,717. The cash amount of the sales reached $9,086,484.57. In only two years since 1885 have the sales on this market amounted to more than in 1894; in 1892 the sales reached $9,954,350.92 and in 1887 they footed up $9,934,611.88.

THE Lexington Transcript, which has for the past three years been owned and controlled by Messrs. S. G. Boyle, D. T. Baxter and W. A. Farnan, has been sold to a stock company composed of Messrs. S. G. Boyle, P. T. Farnsworth, late of the Lexington Press, and Thomas L. Walker, recently of the Kentucky Leader. The new management take charge of the paper to-day. Its politics will continue to be Democratic.

Very respectfully,
MILTON C. RUSSELL, Secretary.

The Modern Mother.

Has found that her little ones are improved more by the pleasant laxative, Syrup of Figs, when in need of the laxative effect of a gentle remedy, than by any other, and that it is more acceptable to them. Children enjoy it and it benefits them. The true remedy, Syrup of Figs, is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only.

RECENTLY at Moorefield, Nicholas County, Ab. Berry, colored, struck his mother, who is about 85 years old and nearly blind, and when his son, Leonard, interfered with his father's assault, he seized a butcher knife and compelled him to desist from taking her part. At night a party of colored folks called upon him, and conducting him some distance from the house, proceeded to give him a genteel thrashing with a buggy whip.

My stock of iron and wood clocks is too large and to reduce this line of goods I am offering them at the lowest price good clocks have ever been sold. Would be pleased to show them to all that need a good clock.
P. J. MURPHY.

THE number of failures reported by Dun's Agency during the past year was 14,292, against 15,242 last year, with liabilities of $163,238,404, as compared with $346,779,889 last year. Bradstreet's review reports seventy-eight bank suspensions for 1894 and 598 in 1893.

A WOODSMAN does not expend a few powerful blows upon a mighty tree and then stop, expecting the majestic forest monarch to fall; nor does a wise merchant send forth a few ads. and then cease, expecting business and a fortune to come without further effort. Keep everlastingly at it.

THE electric railway building fever in Indiana has reached the stage of voting township appropriations of 2 per cent. on all assessable property, and this action has just been taken in favor of a proposed road from Indianapolis to Franklin, a distance of twenty miles, to be built parallel to the Pan-Handle line of the Pennsylvania Company.

THE railways in the State of Ohio have carried 85,000,000 passengers during the last two years without a fatal accident to one of them—a creditable fact which appears to confirm the assertion that a seat in a railway train is one of the safest places in the world. In Ohio indeed railway traveling would seem to be a means for prolonging life.—Railway Age.

STATE TREASURER HALE suspended payment Saturday of salaries payable out of the State fund and on all other current expenses, except such parts of claims for witness fees and pauper idiot claims as he may be able to pay out of any funds that chance to accumulate. The suspension is in anticipation of the last installment, $400,000, due the school fund this week.

COLONEL H. L. STONE and Mr. W. A. Sudduth, composing the well-known law firm of Stone & Sudduth of Louisville, have filed suit in the Jefferson Circuit Court against H. P. Mason, Charles E. Hoge and S. P. Meyer, composing the firm of Mason, Hoge & Meyer, railroad contractors, asking judgment for $15,250, with interest from July 14, 1894, claimed to be due for legal services rendered the defendants. To secure this the plaintiffs also asked that they be adjudged to have a lien upon a trust fund of $25,000, now on deposit in the Bank of Kentucky.

THE RIVER.

Navigation About Suspended—Full of Heavy Ice, and the Packets Have Gone Into Harbors.

The marks here show 8 2-10 feet and falling. River full of heavy ice.

The Bonanza and Stanley down Monday afternoon and will not return until it moderates.

The ferryboat Laurance is still making trips, but she has to take advantage of the space, however, between the immense fields of ice. She took the Maysville float to winter quarters below the lower grade at Aberdeen Monday.

Captains Hall and Mitchell with their boat the Gate City saved a barge containing about 5,000 bushels of coal, belonging to Mr. Wm. Wormald, Sunday night. The barge sprung a leak, and the Gate City was run alongside and, by keeping her pumps going all night, prevented it from sinking.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES DOWNEY are entertaining a young daughter at their home on Fifth street.

THE Ripley postoffice pays a salary of $1,300 a year and there is a lively scramble for the plum. Postmaster Newcomb's term expires February 19th.

WILLIAM E. LANDER, son of a prominent Fleming County farmer, was found dead in the barn, where he went to milk, Saturday morning. He was subject to epilepsy.

At the anniversary banquet of Buckeye Lodge No 150, F. and A. M., of New Richmond last Thursday night, Dr. Kilgour, of this city, responded to the toast, "Our Working Tools."

THE "Deestrick Skule" will give an entertainment at the Lewisburg Baptist Church Friday night, January 4th, for the benefit of the parsonage. Admission 25 and 10 cents. All are invited to be present.

A GAS stove makes a room cheerful. The "Chicago" gave the best of satisfaction last year. We have just received a second invoice this season and the price is higher than for inferior stoves.

S. B. OLDHAM,
Second Street, East of Market.

MENTION was made a few days ago that the wife of Rev. E. C. Savage, formerly of Fern Leaf but now of Hillsboro, had become totally blind. A letter from Mr. Savage Monday states that her physician and relatives are now hopeful that the sight of one of her eyes will be saved.

If yours is the only store in the place, advertise to keep people alive to the necessity of buying; also to compete with the people who haven't stores in your town, but who find a way to get the trade that ought to be yours. The BULLETIN goes into the homes of the best people of Maysville and surrounding country, and the people of this section are the ones whose trade you want.

DR. J. H. SAMUEL and Dr. Sam R. Harvor returned last evening from Dunkinsville, Ohio, where they were called Sunday to amputate the left arm of Mr. Charles Dawson, who had accidentally shot himself several days ago, and an account of which appeared in the BULLETIN at the time. The arm was taken off just below the elbow joint on Sunday evening, and the doctors left Mr. Dawson on Monday morning resting easy and with every prospect of a speedy recovery.

MOST of the eggs exported to England from this side the Atlantic go from Canada. The exports from the United States are small, being only 6,000 to 15,000 dozen per month (chiefly to Bermuda, Central and South America, and British Columbia), while Montreal alone exported during the fourteen weeks following August 1, 1,125,000 dozen. The total United States exports for 1893 were only 143,489 dozen. That year Canada exported 6,805,432 dozen, of which 4,104,000 dozen went to Great Britain.

MR. H. A. BIERLEY, an ex-Maysvillian now living at Portsmouth, has invented a cork, which he claims will effectually prevent the adulteration of the contents of a bottle. Once the cork is inserted in a bottle it is impossible to remove it, and it effectually prevents any person from refilling or adulterating and at the same time allows the contents to pass out freely. Mr. Bierley thinks of starting a factory at Portsmouth for manufacturing the corks, and is engaged in getting up a company for that purpose.

SUNDAY "DUEL."

Bullets Flew Lively, but the Results Were Not Serious.

EASTON, Pa., Jan. 1.—Dr. E. C. Riegel, a prominent physician of Bloomsbury, N. J., a few miles from here, and William Bebbler of Philadelphia fought a duel at Bloomsbury early Sunday morning. Riegel received two bad wounds on the crown of his head and his coat was pierced with bullets, which fortunately did not take effect. Bebbler had a narrow escape, a book in his pocket preventing a bullet from passing through his body.

The trouble was caused by jealousy. Bebbler, who is a cousin of Dr. Riegel's wife, had been corresponding with her, and paying her frequent visits. On Saturday he paid her a visit, which resulted in a war of words between Bebbler and the doctor. The outcome of the quarrel was a challenge from the doctor to fight a duel, which was promptly accepted by Bebbler. Sunday morning was set as the time of meeting, and the men met at the appointed hour, and in short order began firing at each other with revolvers, with the above result.

Mrs. Riegel, who is the alleged cause of the trouble, is 20 years of age and very attractive. The parties are well connected and the affair has caused quite a sensation.

DETAINED PASSENGERS.

Three Hundred and Sixty-Five People Released From Confinement.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 1.—After being detained 14 days at the quarantine station at Chester, the 365 steerage passengers of the steamship Southward were released. They at once boarded a steamer engaged for the purpose by the steamship company and were brought to this city, arriving at the emigrant station late in the afternoon. Here they were given hot lunch provided by the company, and, after an examination of luggage by the customs officials, arrangements were made to send the arrivals to their respective destinations. The detention was for the period required for the development of smallpox germs, and as no cases developed all danger is considered over.

Smallpox at the Capital.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1.—There were two deaths and one new smallpox case Monday. Joseph Brannon and William Green, colored men, were the victims of the epidemic. Both were buried in the potter's field. The new case is that of Millie Watson, a 11-year-old colored girl, who was found suffering from an attack of varioloid and promptly taken to the smallpox hospital. Extra precautions have been taken by the health officials and Health Officer Woodworth has issued an appeal for the co-operation of the physicians of the city and the persons in whose families suspicious cases appear, in order to check the outbreak.

Yale Glee Club's Popular Tour.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 1.—The members of the Yale glee, mandolin and banjo clubs were given the freedom of the city Monday and were shown the various points of interest. In the afternoon they were given a dance and reception at the Coates House, and at night they met an enthusiastic greeting at the Auditorium, the concert being attended by a large and fashionable audience. They left for the east in the morning, going to St. Louis, Louisville, Cincinnati and Pittsburg.

Lower Court Sustained.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 1.—The supreme court has denied a petition for a rehearing of the famous Murphy will case. A few weeks ago the supreme court rendered a decision against Lady Wolsley in favor of the three unmarried daughters of the late Mrs. Daniel Murphy. Mrs. Murphy left an estate amounting to a half million dollars, most of which went to Lady Charles Wolsley, a married daughter. Her three unmarried daughters contested and broke the will.

T-ating Torpedoes.

NEWPORT, R. I., Jan. 1.—The United States cruiser San Francisco has arrived here from the New York navy yard and is anchored off the torpedo station. She will at once receive her outfit of eight Whitehead torpedoes and after trying them, will return to New York.

Roasted to a Crisp.

CLEVELAND, Miss., Jan. 1.—Mrs. Dr. Luke Beasley died Monday from burns received Sunday. She was on a visit to the Kiles' plantation, and was in a room alone when her clothing caught fire. Before help could reach her, she was roasted to a crisp.

Old-Timer Pardoned.

PLATTSBURG, N. Y., Jan. 1.—Daniel Finley, the oldest convict in Clinton prison, Monday, through the clemency of Governor Flower, ceased to be an inmate of that institution, his life sentence having been commuted after he had served 34 years. Finley was convicted of murder in the second degree in New York in 1860. His crime consisted in pushing his wife out of the window of the tenement house in which they were living, the fall killing her. Finley is 90 years of age. All his friends are dead. He says he will go back to Ireland and die in peace.

Another Resigns.

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—President James C. Martin of the police court announced that he would, within a few days, send his letter of resignation to Mayor Strong. Mr. Martin said that now that the Lexow committee is through with its work, and as he felt that he was exonerated, he would resign. He added that he hoped Mayor Strong would accept his resignation immediately.

The Captain's Divvy.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 1.—The Ship-owners' association charges that every sailor who has left this port on a British vessel this year had to forfeit from one-twelfth to one-fifth of his wages to the captain. British Consul Donohoe has made an investigation, but, while convinced of the prevalence of the practice, he failed to substantiate it by proofs.

"SUNNYSIDE."

The Scene of a Charming Musical Entertainment Friday Evening Last.

Last Friday evening at "Sunnyside," the residence of Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Osborne near Tuckahoe, about seventy guests gathered to enjoy a musicale given in honor of some visitors in the neighborhood. To say it was held at "Sunny Side" is but to say every one had an excellent time, for the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Osborne is renowned. The house was beautifully decorated with holly, mistletoe and other evergreens. The musicale was in honor of Miss Mae Thomas, of Muncie, Indiana, and Miss Edythe Hill, of Aberdeen, O. The following was the programme:

Chorus—"Morning Invitation." Reading—"The Style of the Period"—Miss Hurst. Song—"The Flirt"—Margaret Bacon. Piano solo—"Shubert's Impromptu"—Miss Mattie Boulden. Vocal trio—"Silence"—Mr. W. L. Holton, Mr. T. L. Holton and Mr. Tom Holton. Piano solo—"Variations Elegantes"—Czerny—Miss Jennie Leggett. Indian Club—"Miss Edythe Hill. Piano solo—"Fantasia"—Mozart—Miss Mae Thomas. Vocal solo—"Bonnie Sweet Bessie, the Maid o' Dundee"—Mrs. John Bacon. Vocal duet—"Listen, 'Tis the Wood Bird's Song." Piano solo—"Sonatine Clemente"—Miss Maggie Smoot. Reading—"Sandy McDonald"—Miss Sue Pickett. Piano solo—"Valse Caprice"—Newland—Miss Thomas. Male quartette—"My Love's Own." Reading—"How Tommy Got Down in the Well"—Miss Jacobson.

Each number was executed in a brilliant and pleasing manner. Refreshments were then served and every one went home "feeling it was indeed good to have been there."

No bottom prices are so low. Everything is jobs. Come and see.

Taking Butler Back Home.

INDIANAPOLIS, Jan. 1.—H. G. Phillips, a prominent attorney at Oelwein, Ia., came here in search of ex-Congressman Walt Butler. He found him at the police station, where Butler had gone to give himself up. Butler told Police Superintendent Powell that he had an irresistible desire to board a train and was afraid he might leave the city before his friends arrived. Mr. Phillips left for Iowa with Butler.

One Overdue Vessel Arrives.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 1.—The overdue coal ship J. K. Brown, 28 days from Nanaimo, British Columbia, has just come into port. The bark Dominion, in ballast and now 28 days out from San Francisco for Puget Sound, is the only one of the overdue vessels remaining to be heard from.

Probably Twenty-Five Persons Lost.

HAMBURG, Jan. 1.—It is regarded as certain that the collier Napoli and fishing steamer Nordsee foundered during the recent gale. There were 25 persons on both vessels and there is hardly a doubt that all of them were drowned.

Drove Her Father Insane.

ALMONTE, Ont., Jan. 1.—Miss Belle Armstrong, a wealthy young lady jumped from a moving train and broke her neck. Her father witnessed the accident and the shock drove him insane.

BERNARD.

Abner Blaker, of Cincinnati, was here calling on friends last week.

The roads are so badly drifted with snow they are almost impassable.

Miss Nettie True, a charming young lady of Oak Woods, was the guest of Miss Sude Loyd last week.

Misses Julia and Lulu Stitt, of Covington, are visiting their aunt, Mrs. John Holiday, near Orangeburg.

Ralph Dimmitt, of Georgetown College, is spending the holidays with his mother, Mrs. Mary Dimmitt.

One of our jolly old men while sleigh-riding with a lady friend made a mistake and overturned the sleigh and both were thrown into the snow, but as good luck would have it, they all escaped.

One of the most pleasant evenings of the season was spent at the home of Miss Mary Sedden last Friday. Those present were: Miss Lula Stitt, Miss Dottie Tolle, Miss Blanche Kirkland, Miss Ella Shipley, Miss Blanche Wise, Miss Cynthia Wells, Miss Bessie Smith, Miss Lilly Galbreath, Harry Tolle, John Knowshow, George Smith, Ed. Smith, Harry Kirkland, John Stitt, Elbert Key, Vincent Moss, Oscar Bradley and Cyrus Case. At 9 o'clock an excellent supper was served, after which the time was spent in many interesting games, until the wee small hours when the crowd took their snowy departure, all reporting a splendid time. Credit is due the hostess who is well trained in the art of entertaining.

THE WOOL INDUSTRY.

New Process of Scouring That will Revolutionize the Business in America.

[New York Tribune.]

When the New York Wool Exchange opens in May, it will open to considerable purpose. Thanks to the ingenuity of Prof. Ernest Fabrig, a German chemist and engineer, and William T. Cutter, State Chemist of Connecticut, American wool now promises to bring from 3 to 10 cents a pound more money than heretofore. When it is realized that nearly 500,000,000 pounds of wool have been consumed in the United States in the year 1894, the difference is considerable.

The variation in price will be due to simply one thing—good washing. American wool has been as good, and in many cases better, than foreign wool, but old world cleaning methods have been superior, with the result that foreign wool has commanded a better price from those manufacturers who require a superior staple.

Now, however, there is much reason for believing that the tables are turned. The Empire Wool Cleaning Company, a New Jersey corporation, controlling the Cutter and Fabrig patents and processes, is in a position to turn out a better American wool than the best foreign wool at no increased cost. About 20 per cent of uncleaned wool is wool-oil. The Fabrig and Cutter process saves all this oil, whereas the old alkali process gets out nothing. Thus a gain to the national wealth may be effected to the extent of 100,000,000 pounds annually of pure animal oil, valuable as a base for ointments, soap and other preparations, now being sold for 60 cents a pound.

These are stupendous figures, but they appear to be fully justified by the facts and supported by competent and authoritative testimony.

Brown's Iron Bitters

In a unsolicited letter (June 29, 1894.) she writes: "About 9 or 10 years ago I was broken down in health and suffered from extreme nervousness, and severe neuralgic pains afflicted different parts of my body—sometimes the dreadful pain would be in my eyes and head, sometimes in my hand and often in my shoulders and neck. I took many remedies, but found none like Brown's Iron Bitters. I have used a few bottles every year since. I often praise it to others."
